19th January 1925*

Having known the late John Edward Martin for three months, and attended him in his illness until his death in Diemantera Hospital on Monday the 12th January of this year, I am in a position to state that he died without leaving any property or money to his wife and child - and that Mrs J. E. Martin, his widow, has no other means for her support and that of the child of six than the pension of twenty eight shillings per week allotted to her.

Catholic Priest.
